LAST OPEN SUNDAY

Not Any Better Attended Than Any Other Open Sundays.

IT WAS A BENEFIT DAY, TOO.

The Gate Receipts Will Go Into the Fund For the Benefit of the Sufferers From the Cold Storage Fire—Other Events Occurring on the Fair Grounds.

CHICAGO, July 17.—The last open Sunday of the world's fair exposition did not show any improvement upon other Sundays in point of attendance, but as nearly all passholders paid the entrance fee of 50 cents, the fund for the benefit of the sufferers from the cold storage fire was increased in a substantial way.

The morning was uncomfortably warm, but a shower at noon cooled the atmosphere a few degrees. The pass gates were almost entirely ignored, the holders of the photographic privileges in nearly every instance buying a piece of pasteboard bearing the words, "Admit one, benefit of the sufferers of the cold storage fire." The crowd which the evening was expected to bring out did not materialize.

The outward appearance of the fair did not differ in any respect from that of last Sunday save for the emblems of mourning on the engine houses and the flags at half mast. Nearly all of the displays made by foreign exhibitors in manufacturers' building were draped while many American exhibits were closed. The greatest number of visitors thronged the art palace, the Krupp gun exhibit and the convent. The Plaisance which always holds the Sunday crowds was a busy place all day and impressed upon the concessionaries more firmly than ever the idea that their part of the fair should be kept open.

Music was furnished during the afternoon and evening by the Cincinnati, Chicago and Iowa State bands, this feature of "Heroes' day" being much enjoyed and appreciated by moderately-sized crowds.

Rev. L. P. Mercer of the New Church temple spoke at festival hall during the afternoon on the subject, "How Readest Thou?" The attendance was not large, the warm weather no doubt keeping many away.

Professor Tomlins directed a portion of the Apollo club which sang the hymns and Arthur Maas was at the organ. The platform and pulpit were draped in black. Mr. Mercer took his text from Luke xxv, 26: "And behold a certain lawyer stood up and tempted him, saying, 'Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?' He said unto him, 'what is written in the law? how readest thou?'"

The sermon was a good one, having, however, but little mention of the heroes of the recent fire, except at the close where the speaker eulogized the memory of the dead men and said the occurrence had brought to mind the fact that it was sometimes harder to die than to live. He knew their souls would rest in peace after the terrible ordeal they had passed through to reach the kingdom of heaven.

A space about 20 feet square in the rotunda of the administration building directly under the great dome is enclosed by a strong iron fence. Work has begun on a model of the United States treasury at Washington to be made of Columbian coins, and erected within the enclosure. The work will continue several days and when complete a strong force of guards will guard the precious edifice night and day.

The paid admissions during the day were 49,401. It is estimated that the relief fund by concessionaries will amount to $5,000, which added to the proceeds from ticket sales will swell the fund by about $30,000.

More Dissatisfied Visitors.

There is war among the reaper and harvest exhibitors at the world's fair. All the mower and harvester exhibitors of the United States with one single exception have risen in revolt against the plans of John Boyd Thacher, and united in an ultimatum withdrawing their exhibits from competition unless a radical change be made in the program. Trouble has been brewing for several days over the announcement on July 8 that the harvesting exhibitors must be prepared for a field trial on July 17 at Wayne, Ills. All the exhibitors except a Chicago firm have joined in a protest to Mr. Thacher, claiming that field trials are expensive and unsatisfactory, and that insufficient notice has been given.

NATIONAL G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT.

Indications of an Extraordinary Attendance of Veterans.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 17.—Commander-in-Chief Weissert, Adjutant General Gray and H. S. Dietrich, of the council of administration, representing the national G. A. R., were here conferring with the local encampment authorities. Commander Weissert said that the veterans all over the Union where he has been are enthusiastic over the outlook of the coming encampment, and that they would probably turn out here in larger numbers than at any previous encampment. A number of details relating to the encampment were discussed, and the official program was drawn up. The program includes the meeting of the Naval Veterans' association, and is as follows:

Saturday—Parade of the naval veterans.

Sunday—The naval veterans at divine service.

Monday—Arrival of the G. A. R. and escort to quarters. Meeting of the Naval Veterans' association. At night electric and natural gas displays and campfires at Tomlinson hall. Governor Matthews' reception to the commander-in-chief and the department officers at the statehouse.

Tuesday—G. A. R. parade. The parade will be about seven hours in passing a given point. The Naval Veterans and Sons of Veterans will act as guards of honor. Reunions will be held after the parade. At night the W. R. C. will hold a reception at Tomlinson hall, and a display of fireworks will be held in the eastern part of the city.

Wednesday—National encampment G. A. R. meet at Tomlinson hall. W. R. C. Ladies of the G. A. R., Daughters of Veterans, N. T. C. C. guards, army corps, division and brigade reunions will be held. At night campfires and receptions will be held.

Thursday—Meetings and reunions will be continued. At night the war pageantry.

Friday—The sessions of the national bodies will continue. At night the farewell reception will be held.

The commander-in-chief announced that Sept. 9 had been set aside as G. A. R. day at the world's fair. An effort will be made to have the fair open the Sunday following.

IN A SWOLLEN STREAM.

Four Persons Lose Their Lives at Mount Vernon, Ind.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., July 17.—A tragedy occurred at Mount Vernon, Posey county, in which four persons lost their lives. There is a small stream running through the town called Mill Creek. The depth of the water on ordinary occasions is from two to four feet, and the water is frequently flooded.

A heavy rain fell, and shortly after the water ceased to fall Mill creek became well filled, and the current was very strong. Adam Allis, a school teacher, and family, reside near the little stream. Willie, an 8-year-old son, was at play near the stream with Willie, the 9-year-old son of W. L. Boyce, chairman of the Republican county central committee. While looking out of her back door Mrs. Allis saw her son fall into the water, and, rushing down, found the little fellow struggling for life.

Mrs. Allis sprang into the water, and soon found herself unable to reach her son, and helpless in the rushing current. Mrs. Allis called for aid, and a daughter, Miss Anna, about 16, went to aid her mother, and before others could reach the scene the three were drowned in the narrow stream, and their bodies disappeared from view. It did not develop until some hours later that young Boyce was with Allis and was also lost. Mr. Boyce is in Wyoming.

evangelical Lutherans.

BROOKLYN, July 17.—A convention of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of America was held in the Swedish Bethlehem church. Bishop Von Seele delivered the principal address. According to the secretary's report the church has 175,000 members, 740 congregations, 870 ordained ministers, six colleges, three hospitals and one theological seminary. The convention is in celebration of the 800th anniversary of the adoption of the doctrines of reformation by the Swedish people.

Meeting of Railroad Men.

PITTSBURG, July 17.—Delegates representing the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, Switchmen's Mutual Aid association and Order of Railway Conductors met in this city and formed a federation, the object of which is mutual protection and aid. The Order of Railway Telegraphers are to be included in the federation at the next meeting, to be held in Pittsburgh on Sunday, Aug. 27.

The President's Sunday.

BUZZARD'S BAY, Mass., July 17.—President Cleveland passed a very quiet day at Gray Gables. The wind was very fresh in the forenoon, but as it quieted down in the afternoon the weather became extremely hot. The president and family spent pretty much of the whole day on the veranda.

Contractor Wants His Money.

FINDLAY, O., July 17.—C. G. Patterson, principal contractor for the construction of the Findlay, Fort Wayne and Western railroad, has filed a lien against the property of said company, claiming a balance due him for work not called for by his contract amounting to $342,296.92.

Two More Victims.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., July 18.—Christopher Keppell, aged 18, and John Keppell, aged 26, residing in Cranberry pond, North Attleboro, while bathing. The bodies were recovered.

GERMAN ARMY BILL.

It Passes the Reichstag and Is Now a Law.

MAJORITY OF ONLY SIXTEEN.

Monarch Triumph Over the People and the Reichstag Is at Once Closed. Rumors of Trouble in Egypt—Other Foreign Dispatches.

BERLIN, July 17.—The army bill was passed by the reichstag by a majority of 16, the vote standing 201 in favor of the measure to 185 against it. After the bill had finally been adopted the reichstag was declared closed.

The opposition organs contend that the majority of 16 in favor of the bill is not large enough to cause the government to exult, especially as it was won by the chancellor giving pledges to the agrarians and anti-Semites that will certainly give him trouble to fulfill. But the government, with reason, does exult, while its opponents fail to conceal their chagrin. Vexation and disappointment were plainly manifested throughout hostile speeches. The emperor is delighted with the passage of the bill, and rumor has it that he will confer upon Chancellor Caprivi the dignity of a prince.

The initial expenditures arising from the operations of the new military law will be covered by a loan of 48,000,000 marks. This loan has been approved by the budget committee.

Eastern affairs are again exciting anxiety in the German foreign office. Reports from St. Petersburg state that a Russian squadron is going to Toulon and thence to the Levant, when the French fleet, already there, will be reinforced. The Khedive of Egypt, on his visit to the Sultan of Turkey, will urge the latter to use his suzerain rights to send a contingent of Turkish troops to Cairo. Members of the diplomatic corps blame the policy in Egypt which permits the khedive to openly operate against England.

Anti-Jewish Mob.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 18.—The Jews of Yalta, in the Crimea, refuse to obey the decree to retire within the pale. For several days the clergy exhorted the rest of the population to rise and expel them. Last week anti-Jew mob took possession of the streets, broke into houses occupied by Jews and tried to drive the occupants from the town. The Jews fought back. Dozens were dragged into the streets and were beaten. Many were killed. The houses owned by Jews were plundered and wrecked. Troops were called to the town to restore order. None of the rioters were killed and but few were injured.

Rumors of Trouble in Egypt.

VALETTA, Malta, July 17.—The British battleship Inflexible, mounting 12 guns, has been ordered to proceed immediately from this port to Alexandria, Egypt. She will start at once. It is presumed that the hurried dispatch of the Inflexible is owing to disturbances that have broken out in Alexandria. No details of the trouble are known here.

America Again Ahead.

LONDON, July 17.—The American champion swimmer, McCusker, defeated easily the ex-champion English swimmer, Finney, at Black Pool. The match was for £200 a side. McCusker has been challenged by the English swimmer, Nuttall, to race one mile, for £1,000 a side.

Rare Collection of Books.

BERLIN, July 19.—The library collected in Goettingen by the orientalist, Lagarde, now dead, has been bought for the university of the city of New York. The library contains many rare volumes.

Death in the Bull Ring.

MADRID, July 17.—Banderillero, named Lobito, was gored in the bull ring at San Fernando, Isla De Leon, and died half an hour afterwards.

TO SAVE A LIFE.

Such an Effort on the Part of a Train Crew Causes a Collision.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—A freight train collision occurred near here yesterday under unusual conditions. The crew of an outgoing train saw a man lying near the track apparently injured, and in accordance with the rules of the road the train was stopped and an investigation made. It was found that the man was unconscious from a wound in the head and a fractured leg.

He was placed in the caboose, but before the train could be started another freight, also outward bound, came along and crashed into the standing cars. The men in the caboose had not time to remove the body of the injured man, barely escaping from the wreck themselves by jumping. By rare good fortune the collision did not aggravate the injuries of the victim. He was brought to the city and placed in a hospital and has somewhat improved. He has been identified as William Leonard, a cigarmaker living in this city. How he received his original injuries has not been learned.

Tragedy in a Penitentiary.

JACKSON, Miss., July 17.—Henry Singleton, a negro, serving a life term in the penitentiary, killed Lulu Payne, a female convict, by stabbing her repeatedly with a file. He made the attack while the female convicts were getting water at the cistern. Ex-State Treasurer Hemmingway, a convict, who is also a trusty man and guard, disarmed him, as they thought, but he drew a razor and cut his throat repeatedly. He will probably die. Jealously prompted the attack.

RUNNING DOWN LEPERS.

Hawaiian Troops and Sick Colonists May Engage in a Unique Battle.

The steamer Waialeale arrived on July 4, bringing 15 lepers and official dispatches to the government from the expeditions sent to the Valley of Kalalua to capture the leper-murderer of Sheriff Stolz, and remove the remaining lepers from the Island of Molokai. The expedition reached Kalalua valley on July 1. Martial law was at once proclaimed, and all outlets from the valley were closed with extra guards. Fifteen lepers surrendered to the expedition at Hanalei, two lepers had already been captured at Waimea Pass by the police. These had been driven off the valley by the leper Koolau, because they refused to join and fight the government forces.

Koolau, the leper murderer, accompanied by seven others, four men, two women and one child, have retreated up the side of a steep valley, where they are hiding, and declare they will make a stand if followed up by the troops. Koolau told a leper spy that they could escape over a trail known only to the lepers provided they could reach it; otherwise they would fight to the last and then kill themselves before they would surrender. On July 5 orders were forwarded by the steamer Iwalani to bring the lepers in dead or alive.

The government expects the steamer Iwalani tomorrow or next Sunday, bringing the last of the Kanai lepers, who have defied the government for the past 10 years. All will be removed to the settlement at Molokai at once. President Dole announces that the government will hereafter carry out a strict policy of segregation. The steamer Pile has just arrived from Kalalua, and reports that the troops have advanced up the valley. No fighting has occurred. Another report says Koolau and the lepers are surrounded in a cave on the hillside and a battle is imminent. If an attack is made, some are sure to be killed.

CLEVELAND'S BIRTHPLACE.

The Town of Caldwell, N. J., Celebrates a Revolutionary Event.

CALDWELL, N. J., July 17.—Caldwell day was celebrated with a monster picnic on a hill in the rear of the village. Among the speakers were Abram S. Hewitt of New York and Stewart L. Woodford of Brooklyn.

It was hoped that President Cleveland would be present, as he was born in this village, and wrote some weeks ago that he would try to be on hand. A few days ago, however, he sent a letter stating that his health would not permit of the journey from Buzzard's Bay.

Caldwell day is in honor of the Rev. James Caldwell, the "fighting parson" of revolutionary fame, after whom the town is named. British troops burned his church in Elizabeth, and the minister had to flee for refuge to Connecticut farms near the present site of Plainfield.

There, near the close of the war, Mrs. Caldwell was shot dead by a Hessian who had climbed over the fence. The parson, too, was afterward shot dead by a sentry. Many of their descendants still live in this vicinity.

BACK FROM HEAVEN.

A Woman Given Up For Dead Revives and May Recover.

BLOOMINGTON, Ills., July 17.—Mrs. F. H. McIntosh, the young wife of a professional man of Bloomington, has for nearly a week been at the point of death. Several days ago she was given up by her physicians, and on two occasions, following sinking spells, the report went about the city that she was dead.

Sunday morning she had another sinking spell and apparently departed this life. Her husband, her parents and her children and friends were gathered weeping about her bed, when suddenly the apparently dead woman came back to life, and in a few moments spoke in clear and distinct tones.

She said that she had been in heaven and talked with Christ and that the Savior had said to her that she could return to earth for a time. She added that she knew that she would now live. She has continued to improve and her friends now believe that she will be restored to health.

RETIRED NAVY OFFICER DEAD.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—Rear Admiral Earl English, retired, died at his residence in Washington, yesterday, aged 69 years. He was appointed to the naval academy from New Jersey in 1840 and served 46 years, retiring in 1866. He was at the capture of Mazatlan, Mex., in 1847, and remained there until the close of the war.

He was made lieutenant commander in 1862, and served throughout the civil war, being employed principally in the Gulf of Mexico and the sounds of North Carolina, commanding at different periods the Somerset, Sagamore and Wyandott. He was made rear admiral in 1884, at which time he resigned the position of chief of the bureau of equipment and recruiting, which he had held for six years, and took command of the European station. Admiral English left a widow and two daughters, both married.

PORTSMOUTH, O., July 17.—Patrick Foley reported to the police department that his venerable mother, Mrs. Catherine Foley, aged 94 years, was strangely missing. She left his home last Wednesday. She was last seen near the outskirts of the city. A searching party has been organized. The old lady was the oldest resident of the county.

A REIGN OF TERROR.

One Has Been Inaugurated in Montana.

IN THE SILVER MINE REGION.

The Closing Down of the Mines Has Thrown Over Five Thousand Men Out of Employment, and Robbery Is Resorted To—Barbaric Methods Employed in Which a Woman Was the Victim.

HELENA, Mon., July 17.—The closing down of the silver mines at Granite and Phillipsburg, where the granite mountain and bimetallic mines, the two greatest silver producers in the state are located, has resulted in the inauguration of a reign of terror in the two camps. Some 5,000 men have been employed in the mines and mills there and a large majority of these are of foreign birth.

When the mines first closed the miners made a run upon the banks. Many were paid their money, but one of the Phillipsburg banks, thoroughly solvent, but without enough ready cash to meet an immediate settlement, was forced to close its doors. Having got the savings in hand, they made no better use of it than to squander it. One man with a sum of nearly $200 placed it temporarily in possession of a woman at Granite for safekeeping.

Subsequently calling for it, the woman denied all knowledge of it. Exasperated, the owner, with several companions proceeded to force the woman using barbaric methods to compel restitution. Her hands were tied, her face slashed and disfigured, and as a final resort coal oil was poured on her and the threat of burning her alive was about to be carried out. Then the woman weakened and told the hiding place of the money and recovery was effected.

Two days ago an unprotected woman named Ivy about midnight heard a loud knocking at the door, and on opening it she was confronted by two masked men with revolvers, who demanded her money and valuables. One hundred and ninety-five dollars belonging to a man named Mitchell, who was boarding at the house, had been left with Mrs. Ivy for safekeeping. This money they compelled the woman to hand over, threatening to shoot her if she refused.

SENSATIONAL ARREST.

ELMIRA, N. Y., July 17.—Caesar J. Bush of the defunct Elmira National bank has been arrested at his home here upon a warrant issued by United States Commissioner Davidson upon complaint of ex-Congressman H. H. Rockwell, representing Jackson Richardson, president of the bank, and a number of depositors.

In his affidavit upon which the warrant was issued Mrs. Rockwell alleges that when the last quarterly report of the bank was made, on May 4, the bank's overdrafts were named as $18,612.53, when in fact, Colonel Robinson's overdraft amounted to $48,000, that on or about May 6, Mr. Bush gave to the head bookkeeper three notes amounting to $54,000, which Mr. Bush directed him to credit to Colonel Robinson's account.

It is charged that these notes were made in New York on May 6, and were signed by unknown parties whose identity as never yet been established, that the notes were worthless and were thus transferred to Colonel Robinson's account for the purpose of deceiving and defrauding the stockholders and depositors.

Mr. Bush was arraigned before United States Commissioner Davidson and pleaded not guilty to the charge, and bail in the sum of $10,000 was given.

The arrest was unexpected, and has created the greatest sensation since the closing of the bank.

FELL AMONG THIEVES.

A Boy Robbed and Fatally Beaten by Tramps.

PARIS, Ky., July 17.—Will Matthews, about 20 years of age, was found at Cunningham Station, six miles above this city, in an unconscious condition and brought to Paris by H. Clay Whaley.

He partially recovered consciousness, and states to Dr. Roberts, who is attending him, that he started from Georgetown with three tramps, and that they beat and robbed him of $7 and a pair of shoes. He was attacked with rocks; his head mashed nearly to a jelly, face and body terribly bruised and his finger nails nearly mashed off. Matthews claims to be from Memphis. He will likely die.

MINERS' TROUBLES.

Bloodshed Feared in the Southeast Kansas Coal Mine District.

TOPEKA, July 17.—It will be difficult to prevent bloodshed in the southeast Kansas coal mine district. Strikers march from shaft to shaft denouncing the mine owners and miners who are at work in the vilest language. Walters, leader of the strikers, openly advocates bloodshed if necessary to gain his point. He has incited strikers to seriously beat several men who wanted to work.

Dispatches from Pittsburg say that trouble is expected. Captain O. S. Casad, commanding the militia company at Pittsburg, has received orders to hold his men in readiness for any possible contingency.

Here is what Peter Cooper, who died worth many millions, said of Newspaper Advertising:

"In all the towns where a newspaper is published every man should advertise in it, if nothing more than his card stating his name and the business he is engaged in. It does not only pay the advertiser, but lets people at a distance know that the town in which you reside is a prosperous community of business men. As the seed is sown so the seed re-compensates. Never pull down your sign while you expect to do business."

The editor of the Public Ledger will please observe that the World's Fair will be closed hereafter on Sunday.

If you are a good swimmer be satisfied and don't be making exhibitions of yourself. Two men found a watery grave last week while swimming the Ohio.

Those Lexington citizens who lose heavily by the failure of the Kansas City National Bank are now regretting that they didn't invest their money at home. It would have been better undoubtedly for them as well as for their city.

Now is the time for the Republicans to come to the rescue of the wheat growers with that "home market" the G. O. P. leaders once talked so much about.—EVENING BULLETIN.

All right, sonny, the "home market" is here all the same. In fact, it has gotten to be such a "home" "home market" that many farmers are turning their hogs in on their wheat. Your "good Democratic good times" have so destroyed confidence that money is not get-at-able, and wheat has been reduced to the lowest price ever known in this country. What a boon your Democratic administration has been to the farmers, to be sure!—Public Ledger.

Your memory's not very good, old man. Didn't you say a few weeks ago that the tariff had brought down the price of wheat and flour? Now you are singing a different song. What next?

EXPLOSION OF FIREWORKS.

Four Men Killed and Half a Dozen Others Injured.

CHICAGO, July 17.—Four persons were killed and seven injured by an explosion of fireworks yesterday evening at Fifty-ninth street at Ashland avenue. The explosion took place in a small park where an Italian picnic was being held. During the display of fireworks which was a part of the program, a premature explosion occurred, caused, it is supposed, by the carelessness of the men in charge of the display.

The entire supply of fireworks became ignited, scattering the burning powder in every direction. Two of the men in charge of the fireworks were instantly killed, and two of the spectators were fatally injured. Half a dozen others were badly burned.

The dead, so far as can be learned, are: Michael Snow, Richard Marshall, Tony Ladonle and Andrew Jorino.

SUMMER HOTEL BURNED.

Only a Few Guests in the House and All Escape.

MOUNT WASHINGTON, N. H., July 17.—A fire occurred last night in the Glen House, owned by Charles R. Miliken. The fire spread with great rapidity and within an hour the large structure was in complete ruins. The origin of the fire is unknown.

The Glen was built in the early part of 1885, to take the place of the old house which was burned on the night of Oct. 1, of the previous year. It was the latest built summer house in the White Mountains, and was provided with modern improvements. It would accommodate about 300 guests, and, including the furniture it cost fully $100,000. There were only about 25 guests in the house.

FIGHT WITH MEXICANS.

FLORESVILLE, Tex., July 17.—This town has been considerably excited over news from Sour Springs to the effect that Balgir Baylor of that place had run across a camp of Mexicans in the Cibola bottom. He notified Deputy Sheriff Heacock and five other citizens and returned to arrest the Mexicans.

The posse separated and as Baylor and his party rode up, the Mexicans fired upon them. The fire was returned and one Mexican was believed to be shot as he fell. The Mexicans fled leaving behind them a Winchester, a hat, four saddles and seven horses. They are believed to be a gang of horse thieves.

SWITCHMAN BLAMED.

Coroner's Jury Report on the Cause of a Railroad Accident.

NEWBURGH, N. Y., July 17.—The coroner's jury in the West Shore disaster returned a verdict finding that the cause of the accident was an open switch, left open through the carelessness or neglect of Michael Donahue, who had charge of the switch.

The jury also censures the officials of the New York Central and Hudson River railroad, lessees of the West Shore railroad, for not employing competent men for holding such responsible positions.

Recorder McCroskey has committed Donahue for preliminary examination. Five persons were killed in the wreck.

Farmer and Son Both Drowned.

DETROIT, July 18.—A drowning accident occurred at the north end of Belle Isle, which resulted in the death of John Vick, aged 40, and his son Walter, aged 20. Young Vick got beyond his depth and being unable to swim had gone down twice when his father plunged into rescue him. The latter reached him just as he was going down again, but the boy clasped his father around his arms, rendering him helpless, and both were drowned.

The Pressure Too Great.

GALLATIN, Mo., July 17.—The Citizens' bank of Jamesport, this county, made an assignment Thursday night for the benefit of creditors. Its liabilities are about $45,000. The assignment is due to the present stress in money matters.

One Use of Mathematics.

In an offhand sketch of Professor Chrystal, one of his old pupils tells how this mathematician made his science aid him in the management of his class. The daring spirits—say those who were going into their father's office, and so did not look upon Chrystal as a door locked to their advancement—sought to bring sunshine into the room. Chrystal soon had the blind down on that.

To relieve the monotony, a student at the end of bench ten dropped a marble, which toppled slowly downward toward the professor. At every step it took there was a smothered guffaw, but Chrystal, who was working at the board, did not turn his head. When the marble reached the floor he said, still with his back to the class:

"Will the student at the end of bench ten, who dropped that marble, stand up?" All eyes dilated. He had counted the falls of the marble from step to step.—Chicago Post.

He Knew Congressmen.

One of the late Leopold Morse's hobbies was the rehabilitation of the American navy, and his plan of proceeding was thoroughly characteristic. He insisted on the government giving out all its shipbuilding to contractors instead of attempting to do any in its own yards. "Spread de work over de whole coast," he would say in his Bavarian dialect, "and you will haf efery congressman from a seaport district voting for your appropriations because bart of 'em vill go to his own people. In dat way you git a fullgrown navy in 'bout t'ree years."—Kate Field's Washington.

They Cry For the Little Ones.

A Character.

Grave, yet serene, he moves along. Nor heeds the strife that round him sways. Alone amid the crowd he stands. And scorns to gaze at his days. "So noble that he cannot see," He stands in aught above the rest. But wears his greatness carelessly. And bears a lily as his crest. Clear searching eyes that see through all. A smile imprisoned in their wells. Which ever and anon breaks forth. Like sudden gleams from hidden dells. A tenderness of thought and act; A brow of intellect and power; A bearing that make men respect. And all things evil shrink and cower. A patience rare and absolute; An utter love of what is true; A glance that sweeps the stars in heaven. Yet notes a flower's faintest hue.

A Veteran Returns His Pension.

Joseph P. Clarke, an old Union soldier of Baltimore, has astonished the members of his Grand Army post and other friends by surrendering his pension of $12 a month to the Government. His disability was in the leg. He had been suffering since the war. A perilous surgical operation a week ago removed the trouble, and Thursday Mr. Clarke sent a letter to the Commissioner of Pensions returning his voucher and declining to accept any more money from the Government.

ANOTHER "SNIPE HUNT."

Professor Stone, the Phrenologist and Mind-Reader, the Victim this Time.

There was another "snipe hunt" last night.

This time, the boys initiated Professor Stone, the phrenologist and mind-reader. The Professor has been in Maysville several weeks telling of business, courtship, marriage and such things.

He also advertised a "free museum" at his rooms at Mrs. Wood's boarding house, corner of Third and Limestone.

It is said quite a number of men have had the Professor feel the bumps on their heads and tell them of their past and future, and inform them as to the calling for which they were best suited.

But business has been a little "slack" with the Professor of late, and he announced that he would leave here to-day and go to Paris.

Yesterday a party of young men concluded they would initiate Mr. Stone into the mysteries of "snipe hunting." The subject was broached to him and he was in for it.

A two-horse wagon was procured from Messrs. Wells & Biggars, a supply of candles, sacks, &c., was obtained and about 9:30 o'clock last night the party, numbering twelve or fifteen, started on their "hunt." In the crowd were most of those who initiated Fred Geiske, the clerk, a month or so ago.

Mr. Charles Reed, who lives a mile or so south of town joined the party as guide. Mr. Reed knows the country well, and conducted the crowd to a point near Summit. Here the conveyance was left, and the party footed it across the fields to a deep hollow. The nearest residence was a mile and a half away.

The boys were all very anxious (?) to hold the sack. It was much nicer than beating the bushes and chasing up the snipe. They finally agreed, however, to let the Professor hold one of the sacks, as he was not well acquainted with the country. He was given explicit instructions to keep very quiet for awhile, and was told how to close the sack when he got in the required number of birds.

Everything having been arranged the crowd started out beating the bush, and left the Professor anxiously watching for the appearance of the "snipe."

How long he held the sack is not known. The party returned to the vehicle, and as they were starting home they could hear him off in the hollow a mile or so away yelling, "Here I am! I'm lost!"

The Professor got back to town about 9 o'clock this morning footsore and dusty from his tramp. He doesn't care to take any more "snipe hunts." He is very indignant at the trick played on him, and has consulted Judge Cole & Sons with a view of suing the crowd for damages.

Says the Lexington Press of Saturday: "J. L. Daulton, manufacturer of fine cigars, Maysville, is in the city in the interest of his business. Mr. Daulton has a fine trade in Central Kentucky and is a merchant traveler of long experience."

For sterling silverware—knives, forks, spoons, fancy articles and novelties—go to Ballenger, the jeweler. His goods are warranted. His stock of watches and jewelry is the best manufactured, and that's the kind to buy. Always bear that in mind.

The Louisville and Nashville Railroad besides declaring a semi-annual cash dividend of 2 per cent. has a surplus for the fiscal year, although last year there was a deficit. The gross earnings were $22,399,795, an increase of $1,164,074, and the net earnings $8,031,092, an increase of $587,493.

The failure of the Kansas City National Bank last Friday caught several Lexington people. Twenty per cent. of the capital stock of the institution is held by citizens of Lexington. The following are the sufferers by the suspension: Sidney Clay, $15,000; George W. Darnell, $4,500; Hiram Shaw, $3,500; J. W. Appleton, $3,500; J. W. Shropshire, $4,000; S. Bassett, $4,000; Shelby Kinkead, $4,000; W. Enmal, $7,000. The following also owned stock: R. G. Anderson, J. W. Berkley, Prof. Graham, J. P. Shaw and Mrs. W. D. Boswell.

CONGRESSMAN PAYNTER arrived in Washington City Friday. The correspondent of the Louisville Post says: "He called at the Postoffice Department and recommended H. S. Curry for the office at Hope and W. J. Crawford at Hunnewell. Both were promised. Mr. Paynter would not say whether he was going to vote for the repeal of the Sherman law or not. He said: 'I have voted for free coinage, but that does not mean that I want the Sherman law in vogue.' Judging from his remarks, Mr. Paynter will vote for the repeal if substitute legislation is proposed."

The C. and O. came into line Friday and will inaugurate a one-fare rate for the round-trip to the World's Fair, with a limit of ten days. The move will effect the Central Traffic Association territory, or cities within 225 miles of Cincinnati. The excursion will run through to Chicago, trains going over the Big Four tracks between Cincinnati and the World's Fair city. The accommodations, A. G. P. A. C. B. Ryan, announces will be of a superior character, and patrons of the C. and O. will have nothing to complain of in the way of perfect facilities. The new rate goes into effect July 17, and will be in force thereafter.

PACKING returns show a total of 265,000 hogs for the past week, compared with 260,000 the preceding week, and 240,000 for corresponding time last year, for Western operations, making a total of 3,680,000 since March 1, against 4,690,000 a year ago. Increase 25,000 for the week, and decrease, 1,010,000 for the season, compared with last year. With the relatively liberal offerings of hogs values have been well sustained, and at the close are generally about the same as a week ago, being a little higher in some instances. The larger packers have generally purchased hogs freely. The quality in some instances is showing some falling off.—Cincinnati Price Current.

LEXINGTON has been going too fast a gait, and now her treasury is empty; the city employees have received no pay for June work and the teachers have not been wholly paid off.

MAYOR J. HULL DAVIDSON, of Lexington, will not be a candidate for re-election. This leaves the fight between Major Henry T. Duncan and Colonel John O. Hodges.

THE Red Corner now has one of the brightest and most attractive store rooms in this city. The work of improving it was completed Saturday. A steel ceiling of handsome design was put on.

O. W. STEWART, a merchant who left Youngsville, Adams County, a few days ago, left only $1,500 worth of goods with which to pay $7,000 worth of indebtedness. His wife thinks he has met with foul play.

THE engine of the C. and O.'s Maysville accommodation was "dead" this morning, and only after considerable "doctoring" did the crew succeed in reviving her and getting up steam. The train was delayed some time.

PARENTAL opposition and objections didn't prevent Miss Sallie Cooper, of Lexington, from marrying the man of her choice. In stocking-clad feet she slipped out of her home and wedded Robert E. Snyder. Her mother says she will never speak to her again.

SENATOR HUFF, editor of the Vanceburg Sun in speaking of the membership of the late Legislature says: "Of the Democratic members of that last and much abused Legislature, we wish to mention two or three as being in our estimation almost perfect types of manhood, morally and intellectually. Our friend and neighbor, Garrett S. Wall, is one of the number, but as we have made favorable mention of him before, we will not comment on his good qualities here as you all know the very high estimation in which he is held by us."

MR. W. H. PAXTON, of Platte City, Mo., who is attending the World's Fair, writes our correspondent at Washington that the fair will most certainly be closed hereafter on Sundays. Slim attendance on Sundays, together with the protest of the better people of the country, have decided the management to discontinue Sunday opening. Mr. Paxton will be in our county the first of next week. His letter was written Thursday, and later developments show he was correct. The Directors since then voted to close the fair on Sundays.

AN amendment to the new Corporation law relieves companies from placing the word "incorporated" under the name of the company on "all printed or advertising matter." The section still requires each company to have painted or printed in letters sufficiently large to be easily read the name of the company on its principal place or places of business in the State, and immediately under the same the word "incorporated." The Attorney General construes the words "principal place or places of business" to mean the place of business of each and every agent in the State of a company.

River News.

The Carrollton has taken the Boston's place in the Pomeroy trade.

A recent United States Government report for the year 1892 shows that steam vessels in the United States carried 650,000,000 passengers in the year 1892 and only 240 lives were lost. The railroads combined only carried 402,000,000 passengers and of these 6,334 lives were lost and 29,025 were injured.

Says the Portsmouth Blade: "The fight between the Bay Brothers' steamer Henry M. Stanley and the Sherley, of the Independent line, is getting hotter. The Bay Brothers have enlisted their other boats in the fight and propose to make things hum for the opposition. The Lizzie Bay that connects at Point Pleasant with the Stanley for upper Ohio river points has made a sweeping reduction in reshipping rates. The Ruth and Georgia that run in short trades above Ironton are carrying passengers at street railroad rates, and light freight is being transported for almost a song."

Death of Miss Katherine Schnelle.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schnelle was darkened by Death's sombre shadow early Sunday morning, and the sincere sympathy of their friends goes out to them in their bereavement. At 1:14 o'clock their daughter, Miss Katherine White Schnelle, passed away, after an illness of two weeks from typho-malarial fever. Deceased was nineteen years and four months of age. The funeral will occur this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the family residence, services by Rev. E. B. Cake. Interment in Maysville Cemetery.

NEAR Winchester thirty-five young turkeys and four old ones took shelter under a tree during a storm. Lightning struck the tree and all the turkeys were killed by the shock.

MRS. JOSEPH A. HOWERTON, who is figuring in the Bourbon County scandal, has been located in Boston. Relatives have gone East to bring her home, and it is said she will be sent to the asylum.

MR. C. B. RYAN, the popular and pushing A. G. P. A. of the C. and O., is thinking of putting on a special accommodation to leave Cincinnati after "Paris," for one or two evenings each week.

JAMES BLANKENSHIP, a merchant of Clarksburg, Lewis County, almost fainted when a bastardy warrant was served on him Friday. Rilla Connelly preferred the charge. He says he is innocent and that enemies are trying to ruin him and his business.

MRS. A. P. JARVIS, who committed suicide at Sharpsburg last week by taking morphine, was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hardin Taylor, of Orangeburg. She was about forty years of age, and had been troubled a great deal with dyspepsia for several years.

RATS have been destroying Lew Gilgen's chickens at Portsmouth. Thursday night he removed the fowls and placed a couple of owls in the hen house. Next morning he found sixteen dead rats. The owls will remain for a night or two to catch any stray rats that haven't heard of Gilgen's new breed of game chickens.

JOSEPH G. SEAMANDS, aged sixty-four years, died Sunday morning at 2:30 o'clock at his home near Lewisburg, of consumption. The funeral will occur to-morrow (Tuesday) morning at 9 o'clock at the residence. Deceased moved to Kentucky from Virginia and had been a resident of Mason County for several years. His wife and several children survive. One of his sons is Mr. William Seamands, of the East End.

VISITORS to the World's Fair will find elegant accommodations at the Prince Albert Hotel, 6437 Starr Avenue, Chicago. It is within a block of the most prominent entrance gate. This is a feature that should be considered, as the trains are always crowded and one is too wearied after the day to stand, or walk far. The manager, J. B. Noyes of Maysville, is a most obliging and genial host, and very solicitous as to the welfare and comfort of his guests. This article is unsolicited by the manager or proprietor.

A GUEST.

Says the Louisville Commercial, a Republican paper: "When Commissioner Lochren found a musician in steady employment and a Government clerk in regular attendance at his desk, each drawing a pension at the rate for total disability requiring the constant aid and attendance of another person, or $72 a month, he found what the Commercial insisted he would—that the most obvious pension frauds would be found among the old law cases. The numerous suspensions he is making under the new law are not because of fraud, but because the medical department did not correctly interpret an order about ratings."

THE GROWTH OF CYCLING!

For an evidence of the really phenomenal growth of bicycling in this country one has only to glance at the club fixtures published almost daily in the Herald. All over the country road and track races are scheduled months ahead, and thousands upon thousands of wheelmen take part in them. The fact that the use of the wheel is rapidly growing in favor with women, and that reputable physicians everywhere indorse the exercise as one of the most health-promoting for both sexes, doubtless have much to do with the sport's advancement. One thing is certain, outside of racing and baseball no pastime has taken such a hold on our health-loving people as has cycling, and for personal benefits it is superior to both of these.—New York Herald.

THIS IS THE FODDER LAND.
A Cry Comes From Europe For American Hay.

NEW YORK, July 17.—The World says:

The farmers throughout the country have been tumbling over each other during the last few months to get the hay which they have held over from last season into this and other cities for export to Europe. The occasions when American farmers have been called upon to supply foreign countries with hay have been so rare that this year will prove a phenomenal one in the lives of the farmers.

The first news that Europe was short of hay and that the United States were depended upon to relieve her distress reached here early in May. It did not spread rapidly and the demand was not supplied. American consuls abroad then began to inquire of the agricultural department if the hay crop was short here or if there was a lack of desire to ship hay abroad. Foreign legations in this country also began to receive inquiries concerning the forage crops.

When the news at last began to spread that Europe wanted hay, it spread with lightning rapidity. It was a situation for which thousands of wily farmers had been waiting many years. It has been their custom to send a limited quantity of hay to market in the summer and early fall, and store the rest in the hope that it would be worth $20 a ton, an increase of from $2 or $3 over usual rates. On several occasions this has happened.

Even in their wildest dreams they never hoped to get $30 a ton, and when the news that Europe was waiting for their surplus stock reached them their anxiety to supply the demand can be imagined.

Hundreds of tons of hay from Iowa, Nebraska, Wisconsin and nearby states have been pouring into this and other seaboard cities. Tramp steamers have been loading at some of the Brooklyn wharves for several weeks and many shiploads have been landed abroad.

Still the cry comes that more is wanted. The fact that the first demand was not made known until several weeks after the lack of forage throughout Europe grew pressing, created considerable distress there, especially in France. In both England and France the price was frequently as high as $50 a ton. It has been reported that the lack of forage in France has necessitated the slaughter of a large number of cattle to prevent them from suffering from lack of food.

A representative of the big commission houses of Williams & Rickerson says that, judging by the way the American farmers are striving to supply the foreign demand for hay, Europe would soon have all that she needs. "All the hay in the market," he said, "is last year's crop. None of this year's hay has come in yet. The immense quantities coming here show how the farmers have been hanging on to it. We are getting queries from farming districts in almost every section asking us how much we can sell hay for, and if we can not get more for it."

"Market men who have never heretofore paid much attention to hay are buying it in this city from $17 to $20 a ton and sending it abroad. We have been getting $30 a ton for it abroad, and the persons to whom it is consigned pay the freight, which is about $10 a ton. This makes it cost them $40, and by the time the consumers get it the price must reach the neighborhood of $50, a phenomenal price."

"The cause of the scarcity of the foreign crop of fodder is said to have been the dry weather last year. The same condition of affairs exists this year. As if they doubted this, the farmers are busy unloading all their old hay, and thousands of tons are pouring into every port where it can be shipped."

Still, in this country, no scarcity of forage is threatened, because the yield this year promises to be big enough to supply every demand made upon it.

The Baltimore Manufacturers' Record says: "The Chesapeake and Ohio has been developed from a road that was worth but little to one of the finest railroad properties in the world—a trunk line which at the present day has few equals in the superiority of its construction, the quality of its rolling stock, its splendid train service and the ability of its officials. It now comprises about 1,200 miles of road, with 330 miles of sidings, operated with nearly 300 locomotives and 12,000 passenger and freight cars. Its net earnings for the year ending June 30, 1891, were over $2,300 per mile, or 27.15 per cent. of the total earnings, while for the eleven months ending May 31, 1893, its net earnings were $3,242,355, a gain of nearly $900,000 over the eleven months ending May 31, 1892. These figures tell the tale of its prosperity and the ability of its management far better than columns of description."

The Ladies.

The pleasant effect and perfect safety with which ladies may use the California liquid laxative, Syrup of Figs, under all conditions, makes it their favorite remedy. To get the true and genuine article, look for the name of the California Fig Syrup Co., printed near the bottom of the package.

SOME inquiries are made how to find the gold value of the silver dollar, when the price of silver is given. Multiply the market value of silver by 77½; this gives the gold value of the silver dollar. The factor 77½ is the result obtained by dividing 371½, the number of grains of silver in a dollar, by 480, the number of grains in a troy ounce.—Cincinnati Tribune.
